

WHO WILL YOU BE?

WHAT CAREER WILL YOU CHOOSE?

WHAT IMPACT WILL YOU MAKE?

Our dynamic programs, warm campus environment and engaged faculty will help you discover the answers to these questions. The mission of The University of Findlay is to equip our students for meaningful lives and productive careers.

At UF, you will find a comfortable setting, a challenging educational environment and lifelong friends and mentors who will make your experiences here even more valuable. When you walk across the stage at graduation, you will be well prepared to move on to other adventures with a strong sense of who you are. Discover who you can be at The University of Findlay.

MAKING TIME FOR YOU

Our professors are committed to teaching and guiding you. Beginning with the first time you sign up for classes at UF, you are teamed with a faculty adviser who will work with you to make sure that you stay on the right track throughout your college career.

[Be] INSPIRED

Professors make time for you at The University of Findlay. You're encouraged to stop by their offices, talk with them after class or simply e-mail them with questions and concerns.

Because professors, not teaching assistants, teach all of our classes, you will learn directly from knowledgeable faculty members who bring enthusiasm for teaching and, in many cases, years of real-world experience to the classroom.

"I try to teach a base of 'learning tools' in my classes, because I know that most of the important lessons in life are learned outside the classroom. I take my students to public lectures, concerts, plays and news events. I send them to ride with the Findlay police to develop observation and interviewing skills. We do learn concepts in the classroom, but that's just the beginning."

Diana Montague, Ph.D.
Director, First-Year Experience Program
Professor of English

LIVING, LEARNING, LAUGHING

Since we are a small campus, you can be involved in as many things as you want at UF. You can sing in the concert-chorale, join a social fraternity or become a part of any of our 75 student organizations. You can also enjoy concerts, comedians and entertainers that perform on campus throughout the school year.

CHART YOUR COURSE

The University of Findlay's strong academic programs are matched by the resources and opportunities you need to discover who you will be.

From Academic Support Services and the First-Year Experience Program to service opportunities and cultural activities, the UF experience will not only prepare you for your career, but also for life.

We know that having a successful career that you love is the main reason you are going to college. And we will help prepare you for everything from choosing the right career to finding your first job after graduation.

UF's Office of Career Services will help you:

- Write an effective cover letter and résumé.
- Find an on- or off-campus job during the academic year.

And, because our faculty care about your success, they will use their professional experiences and contacts to help you find internship and job opportunities.

More than 1,400 internship and full-time job opportunities from employers across the country were posted through UF's Office of Career Services for 2005-06.
